

MY Noel Studio

for Academic Creativity

Are you writing a paper this semester?
Consultants can help you. . .

1. generate ideas to develop creative and compelling topics
2. draft detailed outlines and research notes
3. draft and revise your paper in a supportive environment
4. create effective and memorable visual elements to support your writing

In the Noel Studio, you can also...

- generate ideas and brainstorm on large dry-erase boards
- design, create, and share effective documents using large, touch-screen monitors
- collaborate on group writing projects in a Breakout Space
- practice speaking about your writing in a Practice Room
