

MY Noel Studio

for Academic Creativity

Are you giving a speech or presentation this semester?
Consultants can help you...

1. generate ideas to develop creative and compelling topics
2. draft detailed outlines and presentation notes
3. practice in a supportive, comfortable environment
4. create effective and memorable visual aids

In the Noel Studio, you can also...

- brainstorm on large dry-erase boards
- design, create, and share effective visual aids using large, touch-screen monitors
- create, practice, and record group communication projects in a Breakout Space
- practice, record, and review individual presentations in a Practice Room
